SEASON AT A GLANCE

SURF N TURF INVITATIONAL - Florida State went 4-1 at FIU's Surf N Turf Invitational in South Beach, falling to UCLA and then going 4-0 against TCU, Tulane, FIU and Grand Canyon. FSU's pair of Hailey Luke and Katie Horton went undefeated in all five matches of the tournament.

OFF WEEK - The Seminoles had a weekend off at the end of March - a rarity in a sport with such a short season - giving the team an opportunity to host a Garnet and Gold Tournament in Tallahassee. The 10-team double-elimination tournament gave the team a chance to compete against each other in new pairings. Sara Putt and Macy Jerger took home the title at the end of the event.

SPRING BREAK - FSU stayed in Southern California for the remainder of spring break, playing a series of single-dual matches against Pepperdine, Long Beach State and Loyola Marymount. The Seminoles then headed home to take on Houston Baptist and Jacksonville in Tavares, Fla. for the Hickory Point Lake Bash to go 3-2 on the week. A pair of sweeps against LMU and JU brought the team's shutouts this season to six.

EAST MEETS WEST CHALLENGE - FSU headed to Manhattan Beach to participate in UCLA's annual East Meets West Challenge. The Seminoles earned their first losses of the season against Pepperdine, UCLA and USC, but picked up a 4-1 win over then-ranked No. 3 Hawaii.

FSU INVITATIONAL - The Seminoles remained undefeated through the team's first two tournaments, taking down St. Petersburg College, College of Charleston and Stetson in their first home event of the season. FSU came out of the tournament as the only undefeated AVCA Top-5 program.

GONCALVES/PUTT VOLLEYMOB PAIR OF THE WEEK - The No. 3 duo of Francesca Goncalves and Sara Putt earned the first weekly honor for the Seminoles following their performance at the Stetson Spring Fling. The pair earned three straight-set victories and one three-set comeback win, and clinched all four wins for FSU.

STETSTON SPRING FLING - The Seminoles went undefeated at their first event of the season, taking down four ranked opponents - #16 Florida Atlantic, #8 South Carolina, #12 Georgia State and #15 Stetson. Out of the six teams competing in the event, FSU was the only one to come out undefeated.

CCSA PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE - The Seminoles placed a program record four on the Preseason All-CCSA team, and Vanessa Freire took home her second consecutive Preseason Player of the Year award. Tory Paranagua, Brooke Kuhlman and Francesca Goncalves made the list, while Hailey Luke was named to the CCSA Preseason Watch List. It marked the second year in a row FSU placed the most players of any team on the list, and the third year a Seminole took Preseason Player of the Year.

HEAD COACH
BROOKE NILES
 THIRD SEASON • UC SANTA BARBARA (2003)

Year	School	Record	Winning %	NCAA
2016	Florida State	32-3	.914	Finals
2017	Florida State	29-9	.763	Semifinals
2018	Florida State	16-6	.727	—

Entering her third season with the program, head coach Brooke Niles has shaped Florida State beach volleyball into one of the most elite teams in the country, establishing the Seminoles as a national contender every year and a fixture in the AVCA Beach Top-20. Niles came to FSU prior to the 2016 season, and had previously coached at the collegiate, junior college, club and high school levels working with both indoor and sand volleyball teams.

In 2016, Niles led the Seminoles to unprecedented heights during the program's first season as an official NCAA Championship sport. Her first year in Tallahassee was highlighted by a series of program firsts including a school-record for dual-match victories (32), a conference championship, the top-seed in the inaugural NCAA Beach Volleyball Championship and a national runner-up finish.

Florida State hit the ground running under Niles, winning its first 14 matches, all on the road, with eight of those victories coming against ranked foes including five ranked in the top-10. One of those wins came against then-No. 2 Southern California in Los Angeles as the Seminoles snapped the Women of Troy's 19-match home win streak. FSU went on to earn the No. 1 overall seed at the NCAA Beach Volleyball Championship after claiming the 2016 Coastal Collegiate Sports Association (CCSA) Conference title.

The Seminoles finished the 2016 campaign as the national runner-up at the NCAA Beach Volleyball Championship in Gulf Shores, Ala. after posting a 3-2 record at the tournament. FSU went on to set the single-season school record for victories in a season with 32 and ranked in the Top 5 of the AVCA national poll all year. Along with their 14-match win streak, the Seminoles also put together a school-record 17-match win streak which saw Florida State outscore the opposition 71-10. At season's end, Florida State registered 19 victories over ranked schools, while posting an 11-3 mark against teams ranked in the Top 10.

In her second year under the helm Niles continued the winning tradition of Florida State beach volleyball. The team finished with the second-most wins in school history and the third most in the country (29). Niles and the Noles secured back-to-back CCSA Championships after they defeated FIU 3-0 in 34 minutes. Florida State reached their second consecutive NCAA Beach Volleyball Championship appearance and sixth straight post season appearance, tied for most of any school.

The Seminoles finished the 2017 season in fourth place at the NCAA Beach Volleyball Championship in Gulf Shore, Ala. after going 2-2 at the tournament. The Noles defeated a school record 22 ranked teams during the 2017 season, including 13 wins over top-10 teams and three over top-5 teams. The 2017 season saw the Garnet and Gold defeat Pepperdine for the first time in school history as they took down the second-ranked wave in Tallahassee.

Under Niles, Florida State garnered two AVCA All-Americans, six CCSA All-Conference selections, a league-best three student-athletes named to the CCSA All-Academic team in 2016, the CCSA Scholar Athlete of the Year (Macy Jerger) in 2017, the CCSA Pair of the Year in 2016 (Julie Brown/Jace Pardon) and 10 Seminoles who earned a spot on the CCSA Academic Honor Roll.

Niles was recognized for her outstanding effort in her first season at the helm of the Seminole beach volleyball program as she was named National Coach of the Year by the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA).
