Wake Forest Head Coach Danny Manning

On Turnovers...

"If you ask them it was bound to happen eventually because that's how they play. For us we want to do a better job on making ourselves available for some of those passes. They have great length and great athleticism and they did a good job at getting in the passing lanes."

On Chaundee Brown's injury...

"When the doctors clear him he'll be ready to go. This is something that he's been battling for a while. When he went down at Pitt it's never a good feeling seeing that. So whenever the doctors give him the clear and he gets into practice he'll be back out there."

Looking ahead to Duke...

"This is what the ACC is about. Night in and night out you play against some great teams and you know you're going to play your fair share on the road. Tomorrow will be a day that we prepare for a very talented team. Won't be able to do much at practice because our guys got to get their legs back under them. "
