How much factor in a game like this, is just depth and just not having the numbers?

"When you play them, it's a big factor because they put so much pressure on you. It obviously wore some guys down and it shows on offense -- some careless turnovers and missing shots because your legs aren't there. We would have had to play our A-game to beat them because they're so good and so deep. They score here so well; they shoot the ball so well at home. It definitely made it difficult."

Was the plan to just try and hit as many threes' early?

"I mean our plan was, they don't let you run offense so you've just got to play off of each other. We don't have any sports player left. Steff Mitchell is not a sports player, he's a critical player. So, we have to play a certain way right now and we just didn't get enough attacks and shots."

how short-handed were you?

"We were playing without three of our top five scorers. So, if you took three of the top five scorers of every team, probably an exception is this one (Florida State) they would probably be in trouble. It's been more than one game; it's been multiple games."
