NATIONAL TEAM EXPERIENCE

- A total of five Deacons have some form of National Team experience entering the 2020 season.
- Hannah Betfort trained at the U.S. U-18 National Team Training Camp in February 2018. She then traveled to Spain with the U-18 National Team to play in the La Manga 12 Nations Tournament.
- Ryanne Brown was a member of the U.S. U-17 National Team where she attended four camps and earned two caps.
- Giovanna DeMarco participated in the U.S. U-19 National Team Training Camp in February 2018. She then traveled to Spain with the U-18 Women's National Team to play in the La Manga 12 Nations Tournament. She was later called to the May U-19 Camp.
- Freshman Breckyn Monteith has been called up to the Northern Ireland National Team on multiple occasions, including the U-19 and U-17 squads. The defender scored a goal against Kazakhstan in 2018.
- Shayla Smart has spent time with both the Jamaica U-17 and U-20 National Teams and was a 2016 and 2018 CONCACAF World Cup Qualifier. She then made her debut with the senior Jamaican National Team at the 2019 Pan-American Games.

SEE YOU IN THE SPRING

- The NCAA Championship is currently being planned for the spring. Here are highlights from the NCAA release: "Division I will work toward hosting scaled back fall championships in the spring, the Division I Board of Directors determined. The board met by videoconference Aug. 21 and adopted the Division I Council recommendation regarding fall championships.

Board members cautioned that fall championships should be played in the spring only if they can be conducted safely and in accordance with federal, state and local health guidelines. The board acknowledged that its action pertained to fall championships only and that the final decisions on bracket sizes and composition will be approved by the board.

Members directed the Council, the Division I Competition Oversight Committee and the Division I Football Oversight Committee to work on models for championships in the impacted fall sports. The priority remains preserving opportunities for winter and spring sport student-athletes who did not have the chance to participate in NCAA championships in 2019-20.

Additionally, all fall sport student-athletes will receive both an additional year of eligibility and an additional year in which to complete it, as the Council suggested, through a blanket waiver."

ACC PRESEASON POLL

- Wake Forest was picked to finish ninth in the ACC in voting conducted among league head coaches.
 - North Carolina was projected to win the league, receiving six of the 13 first-place votes. NC State will not be competing in the fall season.
