NOTING ACC BASEBALL

- Notre Dame, off to a hot start for the third consecutive season under head coach Link Jarrett, enters the week ranked No. 1 nationally by both Baseball America and Perfect Game. Notre Dame is just the second team this season to rank No. 1 in the Baseball America poll. The Fighting Irish (11-1, 2-0 ACC) are off to their best start to the season since 2015 and are the top-ranked team in the country for the first time since 2001.

- Virginia is ranked as high as No. 5, Georgia Tech as high as No. 6, and Florida State is ranked No. 8 by both D1Baseball and Baseball America. Six teams – Notre Dame, Virginia, Georgia Tech, Florida State, Clemson and North Carolina – are consensus top-25 teams this week, and eight conference teams are ranked among the nation's top 30 in at least one of the six major national polls.

- The first weekend of conference play saw Georgia Tech and North Carolina grab the early lead in the ACC Coastal as each swept division opponents at home. Notre Dame swept an abbreviated two-game series at NC State.

- ACC teams own a combined 136-39 (.777) record against non-conference opposition. That includes a 103-12 mark in home games. ACC teams have a combined 20 non-conference midweek games scheduled before resuming conference play with seven league series this weekend.

- Notre Dame is 56-16 (.778) since the start of the 2020 season. That winning percentage ranks second in the NCAA over the past three seasons and trails only Tennessee (.792).

- Through 16 games, Georgia Tech nationally ranks eighth with 28 home runs, sixth with 188 hits, and 12th with 149 runs. The Yellow Jackets also rank 15th in walks (91), 16th in batting average (.322) and 17th in on-base percentage (.429).

- North Carolina has the lowest team ERA in country (1.70) heading into the fifth week of the regular season. UNC has won 18 games in a row in Chapel Hill dating back to the final four home games of 2021. It marks the programs most consecutive home wins since winning 26 straight between the end of the 2018 season (18) and start of the 2019 campaign (8).

Louisville senior outfielder Levi Usher has been named the ACC Player of the Week, and Virginia junior left-hander Nate Savino earned ACC Pitcher of the Week honors.

ACC weekly baseball honors are determined by a vote of a select media panel and announced on Mondays throughout the regular season.

Usher, of Fairfax, Iowa, went 9-for-15 (.600) with two doubles, a triple, a home run, four runs scored and was 6-for-6 on stolen bases in Louisville's 3-1 week that included a victory over No. 15 TCU and a series win over visiting Michigan.

Usher drove in at least one run and had one stolen base in each of the Cardinals' four games. He had three hits in Sunday's win over Michigan, falling one double shy of hitting for the cycle.

Virginia's Savino needed just 103 pitches and struck out seven batters in a complete game, five-hit shutout in the series opener against Duke on Friday (March 11). The Sterling, Virginia, native did not allow a Duke batter to reach second base and finished his outing by retiring the final 10 batters he faced.

The nine-inning, complete-game shutout was the first by a UVA pitcher since Derek Casey against Virginia Tech in 2018. Including Savino's gem, six pitchers in college baseball this season have been credited with complete-game shutouts.
