NOTING ACC BASEBALL

• ACC teams own a combined 89-22 (.802) record against non-conference opposition. That includes a 71-5 mark thus far in home games. Four ACC teams remain unbeaten.

• Five ACC teams remain ranked among the nation's top 10 this week in at least one major poll, led by Notre Dame's No. 3 placement by Baseball America, which also ranked Virginia No. 5. NC State is ranked as high as No. 4 (USA Today Coaches and NCBWA), while Florida State (D1 Baseball) and Georgia Tech (Collegiate Baseball) each have one top-10 ranking.

• Eight ACC teams are ranked among the nation's top 30 by at least one publication, including the season debuts of No. 27 North Carolina and No. 29 Clemson in this week's NCBWA poll.

• The ACC swept the NCBWA's first Player of the Month Awards, with NC State first baseman Tommy White named Hitter of the Month and Florida State left-hander Bryce Hubbard the Pitcher of the Month.

• Five from the conference were named National Players of the Week by Collegiate Baseball, including ACC Player of the Week Jake Gelof of Virginia and Pitcher of the Week Parker Messick of Florida State. They were joined by Georgia Tech catcher Kevin Parada, NC State's White and Virginia Tech outfielder Jack Hurley.

• Gelof was named the National Co-Hitter of the Week by the NCBWA on Tuesday, and Florida State's Parker Messick is Perfect Game's National Pitcher of the Week.

• This weekend's slate includes a pair of traditional ACC-SEC rivalries as Clemson faces South Carolina, while Georgia Tech squares off against Georgia. Each series will be played at three different sites. Clemson plays at South Carolina on Friday, then remains in Columbia, S.C., for Saturday afternoon's game at Segra Park. The teams will meet at Clemson on Sunday. Georgia Tech will play host to Georgia on Friday night before traveling to Athens on Saturday. Sunday will be the neutral-site game of that series, with the teams slated to meet at Coolray Field in Lawrenceville, Georgia

• Florida State's left-handed pitching tandem of Hubbard and Messick have been arguably the nation's best through the season's first two weeks. In their first two starts (23.2 total innings), the pair combined to allow a mere nine hits while walking two batters and striking out 46. A solo homer in the season opener versus James Madison accounted for the only run by the opposition during that stretch.

Virginia sophomore third baseman Jake Gelof and Florida State left-hander Parker Messick have been named the Atlantic Coast Conference Baseball Player and Pitcher of the Week for Feb. 28.

In four Virginia wins last week, Gelof went 9-for-10 (.900) with two doubles, a triple, four home runs and 15 RBI. He reached bases 13 times in four games and slugged 2.500 for the week.

In the series finale against Cornell on Sunday, Gelof hit for the cycle in just four at-bats and five innings played, becoming the first Cavalier to hit for the cycle in 21 years. In Friday's series opener against the Big Red, the Rehoboth Beach, Delaware, native smacked two homers and tallied eight RBI, the most by a Cavalier since 2013.

Messick allowed one hit with no walks while striking out a career-high 13 batters in seven innings in Friday night's 7-0 win over visiting Samford. The reigning ACC Pitcher and Freshman of the Year, Messick was dominant all evening, allowing just two baserunners – a first-inning single and a fifth-inning hit batter. In his final frame, Messick struck out the side on just 11 pitches. In his seven-inning stint, the Plant City, Florida, native threw just 85 pitches, with 63 strikes.

Opponents are hitting .073 against Messick in 12.2 innings pitched this year, and he has struck out a total of 24 batters while allowing just three hits.

ACC Baseball weekly honors are determined by a vote of a 15-member media panel and announced on Mondays throughout the regular season.
