NOTING ACC BASEBALL

• Miami charged to the top of the Coastal Division standings with its road series sweep of Duke this past weekend and holds a one-game lead over Virginia, which took two of three from Georgia Tech. Louisville holds a two-game lead in the Atlantic Division despite dropping two of three at Pitt. Notre Dame, which scored a three-game road sweep at Florida State in a matchup of top-five teams, moved back into second place in the Atlantic standings with roughly two-thirds of the ACC season still remaining.

• With eight consecutive wins and back-to-back Coastal Division series sweeps, Miami also continued its fast climb in the national polls. The Hurricanes are ranked among the nation's top 10 by four publications, and the eight-game winning streak is the team's longest under fourth-year head coach Gino DiMare.

• Virginia is currently a consensus top-three team in the national polls including a No. 2 ranking by Baseball America, Collegiate Baseball and Perfect Game. The Cavaliers have hit 39 home runs in 19 games at Disharoon Park, already breaking the program mark of 38 by the 2017 club over the course of 34 home games. Fans have noticed, as evidenced by the record home crowd of 5,286 for Sunday's win over Georgia Tech. That eclipsed the previous mark of 5,074 on April 12, 2012, for UVA's home game against North Carolina. There have been 13 crowds of 5,000+ in Disharoon Park history. Sunday's game and the 2012 game versus UNC are the only two that came during the regular season.

• Notre Dame's three straight wins at No. 5 Florida State marked the Fighting Irish's first series sweep of a Top-10 team since 2015. It also marked the first-ever series sweep for Notre Dame in Tallahassee in program history.

• With Virginia Tech's No. 23 ranking by Perfect Game this week following its series win at North Carolina, 12 of the conference's 14 teams have been ranked in at least one major poll during the 2022 season.

• Despite several schedule tweaks due to forecasts of inclement weather, ACC teams are hopeful of getting in their usual full slate of midweek games Tuesday and Wednesday. ACC teams are 172-49 (.778) this season versus opponents outside the conference, including a 129-19 mark in home games.

• Single-session tickets for the 2022 ACC Baseball Championship, scheduled for May 24-29 at Truist Field in Charlotte, North Carolina, are now on sale. Packages are available by visiting CharlotteKnights.com or by calling the Knights Ticket Office at 704-274-8282.

Miami shortstop Dominic Pitelli and NC State outfielder Noah Soles have been voted the ACC Baseball Co-Players of the Week, while Notre Dame lefthander John Michael Bertrand earned Pitcher of the Week honors.

Pitelli hit two grand slams and posted 10 RBI with a 1.444 on-base plus slugging percentage (OPS) while guiding the Hurricanes to a 4-0 week. In Miami's series opener against Duke, Pitelli launched a game-winning grand slam in the eighth to give the Hurricanes a 4-1 victory. Then, in the series finale, the Miami sophomore clubbed a first-inning grand slam, sparking an 11-3 rout of the Blue Devils.

Pitelli finished Sunday's sweep with a career-high five RBI, capping off the Hurricanes' offensive outburst. The Miami native is the first Hurricane in the 78-year history of the program to hit two grand slams in the same series.

NC State's Soles turned in three multi-hit outings to lead the Wolfpack in a series win at Clemson, going 8-for-11 with seven RBI. The Thomasville, North Carolina, sophomore hit two home runs in the three-game set against the Tigers after hitting the first of his collegiate career just one week earlier against Georgia Tech.

Bertrand had one of his best outings of the season as he racked up 10 strikeouts through the first six innings of the No. 13 Fighting Irish's eventual 2-0 road win in 12 innings at No. 5 Florida State. In the seventh inning, he struck out two more batters to set a career-high with 12 strikeouts on the night, surpassing his previous high of 11 earlier this season against Monmouth.

The Alpharetta, Georgia, native retired the first two batters of the eighth inning.
