NOTING ACC BASEBALL

- ACC teams have a combined 17 non-league games scheduled for Tuesday and Wednesday. Tuesday's slate includes a pair of ACC-SEC rivalry matchups as Louisville welcomes Kentucky, while Clemson travels to Georgia. Clemson seeks a two-game sweep after downing the currently No. 14 Bulldogs at home last month.

- Louisville and Kentucky have met in all but two seasons since 1985. The teams did not meet in 2020 because of the cancellation of the season due to COVID-19 and had both matchups rained out in 2002.

- Another rivalry is scheduled to be renewed Wednesday in Pittsburgh, as the Panthers take on West Virginia at PNC Park. The game was originally set for Tuesday evening but was rescheduled due to pending inclement weather. The teams are slated to meet again on Tuesday, May 10, in Morgantown, West Virginia.

- ACC teams are 193-54 (.781) in non-conference games this season, including a 144-23 mark at home.

- Twelve ACC teams have been ranked in at least one major poll during the 2022 season. Seven are ranked this week, including three among the top 10 of the Baseball America Poll – No. 5 Miami, No. 8 Virginia and No. 9 Florida State. Virginia Tech continues its midseason surge and is ranked as high as No. 8 by D1Baseball after taking two of three from Miami in last weekend's key Coastal Division series. The ACC's five teams ranked among the top 20 of this week's D1 poll leads all conferences.

- Milestone numbers abounded in Virginia Tech's series-clinching win over Miami last Friday night in Blacksburg. The Hokies presented head coach John Szefc his 500th career victory, spanning his 17-year head coaching tenure at Marist, Maryland and Virginia Tech. The overflow crowd on hand for the game set the English Field regular-season record for attendance with 3,521 fans, ranking third all-time behind Virginia Tech's 2013 NCAA Blacksburg Regional game against Connecticut (3,566) and its 2008 exhibition game against the New York Yankees (5,311).

- Szefc became the eighth current ACC head coach to reach the 500-win plateau. Georgia Tech's Danny Hall (1,337) and NC State's Elliott Avent (1,173) lead the contingent.

- Single-session tickets for the 2022 ACC Baseball Championship, scheduled for May 24-29 at Truist Field in Charlotte, North Carolina, are now on sale. Packages are available by visiting CharlotteKnights.com or by calling the Knights Ticket Office at 704-274-8282.

Georgia Tech's Tim Borden II and Virginia Tech's Tanner Schobel have been named the Atlantic Coast Conference Baseball Players of the Week, while Florida State lefthander Parker Messick earned his third ACC Pitcher of the Week honor of the season.

The Yellow Jackets' Borden hit .353 with six hits, four home runs and 11 RBI in four games and keyed Georgia Tech's series win at ACC Coastal Division foe North Carolina. The sophomore designated hitter from Sellersburg, Indiana, slugged a whopping 1.118 for the week and reached base at a .400 clip. In the three-game series against UNC, Borden hit .385 with five hits, a double and three home runs with nine RBI, slugging 1.154 while recording an OPS of 1.554.

Virginia Tech's Schobel batted .421 (8-for-19) during now-No. 8 Virginia Tech's 3-1 week against Liberty (April 12) and No. 2 Miami (April 14-16). The Williamsburg, Virginia, sophomore led the Hokies with three home runs, including two during Tech's series-opening win over the Hurricanes on Thursday night. He added a grand slam in Saturday's series finale. For the week, Schobel totaled 10 RBI, accounting for one-fourth of Tech's run production for the week.

Florida State's Messick earned ACC Pitcher of the Week honors for the fifth time in his two collegiate seasons after striking out a career-high 14 batters while working 6.2 scoreless innings in last Friday night's 8-1 win over No. 9 Louisville. The Plant City, Florida, native limited the nation's No. 1 scoring offense to just five hits and did not walk a batter. It was Messick's second 14-strikeout game of the season and provided momentum for Florida State's eventual three-game sweep of the Cardinals.
