NOTING ACC BASEBALL

• Clemson sophomore Max Wagner was announced as the NCBWA's Co-Hitter of the Week on Wednesday. The Green Bay, Wisconsin, native became the third ACC student-athlete to collect the honor this season, joining NC State's Tommy White (Feb. 21) and Virginia's Jake Gelof (March 1). Florida State sophomore Parker Messick was named the NCBWA Pitcher of the Week on April 19.

• Wagner, also named the ACC Player of the Week, joined NC State's White in receiving national weekly honors from Collegiate Baseball after each put on a power display last weekend. The pair combined for four multi-homer games, 11 total home runs, 18 RBI and 15 runs scored while continuing to rank among the nation's offensive category leaders.

• White hit his 19th home run of the season in NC State's Tuesday night win over East Carolina, and Wagner remained hot with a pair of homers and six RBI in Clemson's win over No. 22 Wofford. White moved within three homers of the ACC single-season freshman record of 22 set by Florida State's Matt Diaz (1998) and within seven of the NCAA freshman record of 26 set by Georgia Southern's Todd Greene in 1990. White and Wagner are tied for second in the ACC's 2022 home run race behind Georgia Tech's Kevin Parada, who hit his 20th and 21st Tuesday night versus Troy and moved into a tie for the national lead.

• White's 19 home runs are the most by an ACC freshman since college baseball's 2011 move to BBCOR (Batted Ball Coefficient of Resolution) bats that led to a general decrease in power numbers compared to those of the previous three decades. White's 19th homer surpassed the previous BBCOR freshman high of 18 shared by Clemson's Seth Beer (2016) and North Carolina's Aaron Sabato (2019). The 25 home runs by Arizona State's Spencer Torkelson in 2018 stands as the current overall BBCOR freshman mark.

• Miami holds a three-game lead in the ACC Coastal Division, while Louisville and Notre Dame share the Atlantic Division lead following last weekend's full slate of conference action. The final month of the regular season will determine the 12-team field for the ACC Baseball Championship, which is set for May 24-29 at Truist Field in Charlotte, North Carolina.

• Twelve ACC teams have been ranked in at least one major poll during the 2022 season. Miami leads this week's contingent with a top-four ranking in each of the major polls, including a No. 2 ranking by Collegiate Baseball. Miami (31-10) and Virginia (32-10) are the first two ACC teams of the 2022 season to hit the 30-win plateau.

Clemson sophomore third baseman Max Wagner has been selected the Atlantic Coast Conference Baseball Player of the Week for April 25, while Pitt junior righthander Billy Corcoran was named the ACC Pitcher of the Week.

Wagner had one of the best slugging weeks in Clemson school history by going 8-for-19 (.421) with six home runs, one double, 10 RBIs, eight runs, three walks against only one strikeout, a 1.421 slugging percentage and .500 on-base percentage in leading the Tigers to a 4-1 record in five games, four of which were against top-10 teams.

On Tuesday at No. 10 Georgia, the Green Bay, Wisconsin, native hit a homer in Clemson's 8-4 win, then he hit another homer against East Tennessee State on Wednesday. In the three-game series against No. 9 Florida State, he hit four combined home runs in the first two games.

With Clemson trailing 4-2 on Friday, Wagner hit a grand slam on an 0-2 pitch, his second long ball of the game, in the eighth inning to give the Tigers a 6-4 win. On Saturday, he hit two home runs for the second game in a row, upping his homer streak to five consecutive games, tying a school record. On Sunday, he added a double off the wall in Clemson's series-clinching win.

Pitt's Corcoran allowed just four baserunners in seven innings pitched with eight strikeouts in Sunday's 9-4 win at No. 4 Miami. He allowed just one earned run while scattering three hits and issuing one walk.

Corcoran won his fourth-straight start, a stretch that includes three wins over top-five teams (then-No. 5 Louisville and then-No. 5 Virginia prior to Sunday). The Malvern Hills, Pennsylvania native racked up 26 strikeouts and issued just two walks while working a combined 22 innings in those three outings.
