NOTING ACC BASEBALL

- With the arrival of Easter weekend, four ACC series are scheduled to begin Thursday with Notre Dame at Duke, Boston College at NC State, Louisville at Florida State, and Miami at Virginia Tech. Miami and Louisville remain atop the ACC division standings.
- Miami remains one of the nation's hottest teams, running its current winning streak to 14 games with Tuesday night's 7-6 non-conference win over Florida Atlantic. The Hurricanes' 14 straight wins match their longest winning streak since 2014 and stand as the longest active run in the country.
- Two major polls feature four ACC teams among the top 10 this week. D1Baseball is one of four publications to rank Miami No. 2 nationally, and the Hurricanes are followed by No. 6 Virginia, No. 9 Louisville and No. 10 Notre Dame. Collegiate Baseball also ranked Miami second in the nation, followed by No. 3 Louisville, No. 5 Virginia and No. 7 Notre Dame.
- Virginia Tech and Wake Forest continued to earn notice on the national radar after the Hokies took two of three from NC State, while the Demon Deacons swept their three-game series from visiting Duke. Virginia Tech is ranked as high as No. 17 this week (by Perfect Game) and is ranked in three other national polls. Wake Forest is ranked as high as No. 23 by both Baseball America and Collegiate Baseball.
- Twelve ACC teams have been ranked in at least one major poll during the 2022 season.
- Each of the conference's 14 teams had a non-league game on the docket for Tuesday, and the ACC emerged the winner in 10 of those contests. ACC teams are 193-54 (.781) in non-conference games this season, including a 144-23 mark at home.
- Last Sunday's 16-11 win over Duke marked head coach Tom Walter's 350th victory at the helm of the Wake Forest baseball program. Virginia Tech head coach John Szefc is two wins away from reaching .500 for his career.
- Notre Dame left-hander John Michael Bertrand has earned back-to-back ACC Pitcher of the Week honors while becoming the program's first starter since 2017 to post a 5-0 record. Bertrand has gone 16 consecutive innings without allowing an earned run.
- Single-session tickets for the 2022 ACC Baseball Championship, scheduled for May 24-29 at Truist Field in Charlotte, North Carolina, are now on sale. Packages are available by visiting CharlotteKnights.com or by calling the Knights Ticket Office at 704-274-8282.

Georgia Tech sophomore catcher Kevin Parada has been named the Atlantic Coast Conference Baseball Player of the Week, while Notre Dame grad lefthander John Michael Bertrand earned ACC Pitcher of the Week honors for the second week in a row.

ACC baseball weekly honors are determined by a vote of a select media panel and announced on Mondays throughout the regular season.

Parada keyed Georgia Tech's 3-1 week that included a series win over No. 13 Florida State, going 9-for-18 at the plate with a double, a triple, four home runs and 10 RBI. The Pasadena, California, native slugged 1.333 and recorded a .474 on-base percentage. He struck out just twice in his 18 at-bats.

Against one of the ACC's top pitching staffs, Parada went 7-for-14 (.500) in the Florida State series with seven hits, a triple and three home runs with seven RBI in the three-game series.

Notre Dame's Bertrand worked 8.1 innings against Clemson without allowing an earned run in last Friday's 4-1 series-opening win. The Alpharetta, Georgia, native has not allowed an earned run in his last two starts against Florida State and Clemson, a streak of 16 innings pitched.

Bertrand struck out eight Tigers while walking three and allowing just three hits. It marked his fourth start with eight or more strikeouts. He is the first Fighting Irish pitcher since Charlie Vorseck in 2017 to start the season 5-0.
