REPORTING OPTIONS

INFLCR EXCHANGE

Gain exclusive access to platforms and brands that offer or connect you to paid opportunities based on leveraging your personal brand.

Any app and paid opportunity accessed through the INFLCR Exchange will automatically report the transaction to compliance for you.

SHARE LINKS

- You can invite or remove other people from submitting transactions to Compliance for you through a shared reporting link.
- Third parties access the shared link from their email and can submit multiple transactions for you through the same link.
- You’ll be notified when transactions are submitted on your behalf and can always go back and edit the transaction.

SELF REPORT

- In the INFLCR app, you can self report transactions to Compliance before or after they happen.
- The transactions are only visible to yourself and your compliance staff.
- If needed, Compliance can message you through the INFLCR app requesting more information on a self-reported transaction.
